Join us at this ideal venue on the edge of Settle town centre, with its many shops, Pubs and Restaurants being only a short walk away. Weather permitting, we will be playing boule/lawn darts on the Sunday afternoon. Once again, we will be holding the Cake baking competition for The Moxham Trophy and a get together on the Saturday afternoon. The Rugby club bar is open Friday and Saturday evenings for anyone to visit. Please note motorhomes are not allowed onto the rugby field but will be sited on the hardstanding next to the pitch, therefore motorhome numbers are limited to 5.

THE MOXHAM TROPHY

In memory of Brian and Dot Moxham, Sandra England (nee Moxham) and Steve England donated a trophy to the North Lancashire Centre.

Brian and Dot joined the Caravan Club in 1959 as members of The Lancashire Centre, they attended the Inaugural rally of the North Lancashire Centre in 1967. Brian served on Committee for 27 years, starting as a committee member followed by Vice Chairman, Chairman, Rally Secretary and Secretary. As the Chairman's wife, Dot organised the Ladies Charity rallies and Cake stall. To reflect Brian and Dots passion for cakes, it was decided that an annual baking competition would be held here at Settle, which was a favourite venue of Brian and Dots. This year's cake will be a VICTORIA SANDWICH, the cakes do NOT need to be baked in the caravan, you can just bring them with you. Entries will be accepted on the rally and after judging they will be sold as part of the afternoon teas with all the monies raised going to the Centre Charity for 2023, The Motor Neurone Disease Association.
